

THE AFRICA SOCIETY

PROFILE OF

DR. FRANK BOAHENE

Canadian International Development Agency

Institution: Canadian International Development Agency, 1990 -

Position: International Development Officer

Countries of Responsibility: Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. (Education). Université de Montréal 1992
Thesis Title : Skills Development in Africa: A study of technical/vocational education and training in Ghana
- M.A. (Education). Université de Montréal 1985
Thesis Title : Language Policies in Education in Africa.
- Diploma in International Trade Algonquin College 1998
- Post-graduate Diploma in International Development and Co-operation University of Ottawa 1987

RESEARCH

- research member, inter-university research team on site-based management in Nova Scotia
- research assistant, institutional capacity building in developing countries, University of Ottawa
- research assistant, language acquisition and learning

PREVIOUS WORK

Assistant Professor, Dept. of Education 1995-97
Université du Québec à Hull, Québec.

Assistant Professor 1994-95
Université Sainte-Anne, Nova-Scotia

French Language Instructor 1988-90
Public Service Commission of

Instructor, French as Second Language 1996-98
Algonquin College, Ottawa

For more information, please contact:

Dr. Malinda S. Smith
Coordinator, The Africa Society
E-mail: malindas@athabascau.ca
Telephone: 780 438 5708

Ms Nancy Hannemann
Global Education Coordinator
E-mail: Nancy.Hannemann@ualberta.ca
Telephone: 780 492 5962