

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

University of Alberta Distinguished Visitors Fund and John Dossetor Health Ethics Centre

present

Dr. Nora Groce

Medical Anthropologist and Director Yale/WHO Collaborating Centre
Division of Global Health, Yale School of Public Health, Yale University

12 – 16 February 2007

Two public lectures by Dr. Groce:

AIDS and People with Disabilities: Bioethical Considerations

12:00 – 1:00 pm

13 February 2007

Room 207, Heritage Medical Research Centre

The Rights of Children with Disabilities: Canada and Around the World

7:00 – 9:00 pm

15 February 2007

Telus Centre Lecture Theatre and Foyer

Sign language interpreting and realtime captioning services will be provided for this lecture

Everyone Welcome!

Presented in collaboration with UNICEF Canada
Provincial Health Ethics Network
Capital Region Health Ethics Coordinating Council

For more information please call the Dossetor Centre at 492-6676