THANK YOU!

Thank you to all the volunteers who made Holy Week a success. Especially those with obscure jobs, like ensuring that no one stole our Easter fire (it happened when Fr. Glenn was chaplain!), or getting their feet washed, or making sure that the lights stayed off until it was time for them to be lit.

A special thanks to all our musicians! And to the donor of the Easter lilies! And... and... and... There were lots of people. And thanks to all who participated. We literally would not have had the event without you.

CHAPEL SURVEY

A survey has been developed to evaluate the chapel, and the ways we worship and build community. We are especially seeking ways to improve and welcome people back after COVID. Please take time to fill out the survey, and share widely. (Estimated time-10 mins)

Survey Link: <https://forms.gle/ehiVxw5RjCcsxRqA6>

You can also find the survey by visiting the web page (StJosephsCollege.ca) and looking for the Worshipping community links (under "Community" or on the left, where "Public Celebration of the Eucharist has Resumed" will take you to the correct page. We would appreciate it if you would share the tweet on our twitter account, and like the post on Facebook.

NO CHILDREN'S LITURGY THIS WEEKEND

Cecilia and her family are taking some vacation time. There will accordingly be no Children's Liturgy this weekend. My apologies for any inconvenience.

SUMMER BULLETIN SCHEDULE

I anticipate that there will be less news until classes resume in the fall. If you don't see a new bulletin every week, that's why.
