SJC MAILING LIST & CHRISTMAS LETTER

You may have received this bulletin by email; if so, you are on the Chapel mailing list. That means a list that Fr. Jim maintains for this purpose. There is also a mailing list for the College as a whole; if you received an SJC Christmas letter, you are on that list.

If you did not receive your SJC Christmas letter by email, but would like to be on the list, email ferne@ualberta.ca to be added (or have your email updated). If you just want to read the letter, there is a stack beside where the printed bulletins are in the foyer, along with printed donor cards.

DR. MATT HOVEN IN UALBERTA'S FOLIO

SJC Professor Matt Hoven is featured in Friday's edition of Folio (go to www.ualberta.ca and search for "Folio"). Some excerpts:

"Our book engages religion in a way that many people can find valuable," Hoven says. "It's about looking more deeply at life and at sport. We hope religious people will savour sport more and get more involved in it, that theologians will take sport more seriously, and that any reader can reflect on a new day for their relationships with one another."

On the Eighth Day also explores the Catholic belief that "communities and families should enable human flourishing so each person can be their best, that their potential is developed," says Hoven. In the push to excel, it's easy to lose track of that underlying value, he notes.

LIGHTHOUSE SESSIONS IN JANUARY

The SJC Lighthouse team resumes weekly meetings on Mondays at 7 pm via Zoom. There are two topics planned next term:

Forgiven: The transforming power of Confession (Jan 9 to Feb 6)

This session communicates God's invitation to experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Eternal Rest: The art of dying well (Feb 13 to Mar 13)
