EVERYMAN: A MEDIEVAL MORALITY PLAY

Everyman is successful, popular, and riding high when Death comes calling. Forced to abandon the life they have built, Everyman embarks on a frantic search to find someone to defend them. But time is running out.

A cornerstone of English drama since the 15th century, this adaptation by poet Carol Ann Duffy asks primal, spiritual questions about how to understand our life, and our death. Performances are on March 10, 11 and 12 at the Al and Trish Huehn theatre at Concordia University of Edmonton.
