CALLED TO PROTECT

The time of this session was reported incorrectly in last week's bulletin. The next session of Called to Protect training is next week via Zoom:

9:30-12:00 pm, Monday, January 30

Pre-registration is required. Go to <https://caedm.ca/calledtoprotect/> for more information (or go to caedm.ca and look under "Ministries & Services" in the top right "hamburger" drop-down menu, then click on "Safe Environments & Abuse Protection." Or click here if you are reading this online.

ARCHBISHOP SMITH PRESENTS...

Archbishop Richard Smith will be speaking at SJC on Jan 31 from 5:00 - 6:30 in the Newman Centre. The topic is a surprise! To register, visit <https://cutt.ly/R0a6x96> or email sjccm@ualberta.ca. This is part of "Crunch on Curiosity" series of biweekly talks.

CHAPEL COLLECTION COMPARISON

Rather than comparing our current donations to the pre-pandemic times of three years ago, henceforth the weekly donations will be compared to those of the previous year. We were under social distancing restrictions a year ago, and so weekly donations are down. But I think it is more hopeful to see how well we are improving over the last year, rather than hold on to the pre-COVID times as our standard. (Just for your interest, our collection on January 12, 2020 was $1397.)

ARE YOU ON THE CHAPEL MAILING LIST?

This bulletin is posted to the SJC website (look for "Worshipping Community" under "Community") and copies are available in print outside the chapel. If you do not receive it by email but would like to, a link to the registration form is on the Worshipping Community page, or click here if you are reading this electronically. The college website is given at the bottom of this page; you can also phone or email the Chaplain if you have any difficulty.

A NOTE FROM DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE

This past Advent we asked you to help spread the light of Christ with your generosity and by joining our 11,000+ members. Your donations will help our partners dispel the darkness of poverty, hunger and injustice from the lives of some of our most vulnerable sisters and brothers in the Global South. For example, in Niger, which is in the grip of a hunger crisis affecting the wider Sahel region, your contributions support CADEV Niger in providing agricultural assistance, cash transfers, skills training, support for income-generating activities and flood defences to tens of thousands of people.

After more than a year of campaigning for due diligence legislation to prevent abuses by Canadian companies operating abroad, we collected over 27,000 signatures on our petition and met with 43 MPs.

Please continue to support us in our next campaign "Stand for the Land to Create Hope" in solidarity with our sisters and brothers who are defending their territories in the Global South by protecting their lands and waters, the environment and human life.

Become a lifetime member of D&P/Caritas Canada for $10 (35+ yrs old; optional for those <35) to: belong to a community of people who share your values of peace and justice; learn about international development and social justice through our workshops and webinars; and contribute to the success of our education, advocacy and fundraising campaigns. Join at: devp.org/joinus.

SJC SPEAKER SERIES

SJC is pleased to host an event with Dr. Dana Tanner-Kennedy

The Postsecular Theatre of Romeo Castellucci: Incarnation and Iconoclasm on the Contemporary Stage

Wednesday, January 25, 2023, 4:00-5:30 pm in person in the SJC Board Room, and on ZOOM.
To register, email dkieser@ualberta.ca

Dr. Dana Tanner-Kennedy is a Sessional Instructor at St. Joseph's College and the University of Alberta. Her work has introduced a theory of "postsecular theatre" to describe religion's persistent presence in North American theatre and performance in our so-called secular age. She is currently teaching CHRTC 309, "Drama: Jesus Christ Superstar to Hamilton" at SJC.
