COFFEE HOUR & CHILDREN'S LITURGY (9:30 MASS)

The break is over! On September 10 the Children's Liturgy will recommence, as will the social after the 9:30 mass. We could still use helpers for the coffee social.

TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

In the month leading up to Truth and Reconciliation Day (Sept 30), we will be using a land acknowledgment at Sunday Mass. It's a small part of a slow, ongoing, but important work. During this month, I invite you to pay attention to reminders of what has been done, and what still needs to be done. For instance, whenever I take the LRT through Government Centre Station, I think of Bishop Grandin, and of how on the one hand he wanted indigenous children to have productive lives as Canadians, but on the other hand he thought that native language and culture needed to be destroyed to provide these children with better futures.

CALLED TO PROTECT

If you have not already taken a Called to Protect course, or if you feel you could use a refresher, the next ZOOM session is on September 18, from 7:00 pm to 9:30 pm. Please register at <https://caedm.ca/calledtoprotect/>.

BECOMING A CATHOLIC

If you are interested in joining the Roman Catholic Church, please contact Fr. Jim or Fr. Warren sometime in September. The process of discerning where God is calling you is a lengthy one, and if it is to culminate in Baptism and/or Confirmation next Easter, it should begin soon. You may contact Fr. Jim at jim.stenberg@ualberta.ca or Fr. Warren at wrschmid@ualberta.ca if you feel you might be called to take this step. Or talk to either of us after mass.
