Your generosity is appreciated

THANK YOU!

There are a great many talented and generous people who make this place run. So many of them went above and beyond during the Triduum. Readers, musicians, ushers, the family who donated the Easter lilies; those who organized and set up the Easter Potluck, those who brought food, our catechumens and candidates and their sponsors and families; those who gifted us with their time and their presence. Thank you to all of you!

LOST AND FOUND

Things left in the church are taken into the sacristy if they seem to have value, but gloves and water bottles and such are usually left for a while to see if someone picks them up. Eventually they end up in a lost and found box in an office down the hall. There are even some sunglasses there from last summer! So if you've misplaced something, ask, and it might just be granted to you; seek, and you might just find.

SJC FUNDRAISING BREAKFAST

The 2nd Annual SJC Spring Fundraising Breakfast is approaching quickly: it is on April 20 at the University Club. There will be a silent auction, a wine lottery, brunch and entertainment. Tickets are $50. To buy tickets or to sponsor a table, please click here.

LAST STUDENT MASS

The last 7:00pm mass will be on April 21; it will resume in the fall.

REDUCED BULLETIN SCHEDULE

Summers are usually a quieter time around the College, with less going on. Expect fewer bulletins for the next several months; probably every other week. If things are very slow, maybe even less frequently.

The Rosary: A Special Way to Pray

Join Brother Francis in this guide for children on praying the Rosary.

Why Catholics believe in "life everlasting"

A commentary on the faith we profess in the Creed: "I believe in the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting."

Not Just a Legal Transaction | Lectio: Salvation | Episode 5

Salvation is not just a declaration that we count as righteous due to our faith in Jesus; by the gift of God's Spirit we are actually made righteous. Find out more in the latest Lectio presentation.

ANTHONY JORDAN LECTURE APRIL 12 AT NTC

The annual Anthony Jordan Lecture Series, launched in 1986, is co-sponsored by The Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate and Newman Theological College. The lectures have offered students and academics of various fields and members of the public a unique opportunity to hear world-renowned scholars address topical subjects in theology.

The 2024 Lecture will be on Friday, April 12 at 7 p.m. at Newman Theological College. The speaker will be Timothy Matovina, Ph.D., Professor of Theology, University of Notre Dame. The topic is "The Gospel on Native Cloth: Theologies of Guadalupe in America"

The address is 10012 84 Street NW, Edmonton
Cost: Free will offering
