

Bar None Directorships 2004

Job descriptions

The following is a very brief overview of what each of the directorships entail. You will be given reports from people that have done it in past years, so don't feel overwhelmed. These directorships are fun, and look good on a resume. Prizes will be given out after Bar None for those people that volunteered their time. It is a good way to get involved and meet new people. The Bar None directors will be available if you need any help at anytime. We hope that you all consider becoming part of Bar None this year!

Steak Dinner –Monday, November 15th (2 positions)

This event takes place on Monday of Bar None week. This non-alcoholic event that takes place on 5th floor Agriculture Forestry and duties include finding sponsors, organizing food preparation, recruiting volunteers and selling tickets.

Chili Cook-off –Tuesday, November 16th (1 position)

This takes place on the Tuesday night of Bar None week. It usually takes place at the plant science building at the U of A farm. It includes a competition for the best chili and rodeo sports followed by a dance. Organizing involves signing up teams, finding judges (usually profs), booking the building, and creating the rodeo sports.

Girls/ Guys Night Out- Wednesday, November 17th (2 positions)

The night of no clothing...for this position, one guy and one girl are needed to lead the rest astray...this position requires talking to bars to let them know we are coming and work deals, as well as setting up transportation to and from the bars.

Semi-Formal- Thursday, November 18th (1 director)

This is one of the few non-drinking events of the Bar None week. You basically organize industry reps to come and speak to us about potential (summer) jobs in the Agriculture industry. Also, we have a good meal. Dress is business casual. This can be done at Northlands, so location is already taken care of, unless you have a better place to do it at. All in all, a fairly easy job.

Farmer Sports- Friday, November 19th (2 directors)

This event is held in quad Friday morning after a pancake breakfast and is a team competition in “farmer” sports. Potential games include obstacle courses consisting of carrying straw bales, roping a steer head, etc. etc. Be creative, anything farmer oriented and fun can be done. Directors simply have to organize events, get the equipment needed and keep track of the teams. (people will submit their own teams) A fun and creative job.

Pub-Crawl - Saturday, November 20th (2 directors)

This is always a very popular event. The pub-crawl will start around noon, after the Farmhouse breakfast and will wind-up at Bar None. Duties of the directors will include lining up 4 bars to go to (approx.. 2 hrs at each bar) lining up drink specials, finding bus captains and making sure everyone has signed waivers. Busses will likely be organized by the Bar None Directors.

Ticket Sales - Week before Bar None, and night of until about 11pm

(1 director)

This job requires someone who can handle money well. It involves booking tables in advance at SUB, CAB, AgFor, etc and then setting up and selling tickets every day the week before Bar None from ~ 10am until 2pm. Don't worry; you won't miss all your classes. You will post sheets for volunteers to help sell tickets, and people are very forthcoming for this job, as it is important for the success of Bar None. Also, volunteers will be needed to sell tickets the night of Bar None at Northlands. These volunteers will get free entry into Bar None and a free drink. You will be required to keep the money in a safe place the night of Bar None, but we can help with that. Money collected throughout the week can be stored with the Ag Club treasurer.

Banner Director –done prior to Bar None week (1 position)

For all of those who want to feel artistic (you don't actually have to be). This includes organizing the volunteers and materials needed to paint the various Bar None banners that will be adorned across campus, as well as the banner that will hang behind the band the night of Bar None.

Hog Dog Sales/ Breakfast Directors (2 positions)

This position looks after the hot dog sale and breakfasts that happen during the week. Duties include finding sponsors, organizing volunteers and looking after the food for the various days.
