As Director of Writing Across the Curriculum, I'll be working with faculty and students across the university to improve student writing. I consult with instructors and departments, and I teach writing in a wide variety of courses when students in those courses are starting a writing assignment. I will also be working with students and faculty in the Department of English and Film Studies, my home department.

I am the author, co-author, or editor of six books and 29 articles, including Writing Instruction in Canadian Universities. My current research interests include the development of doctoral student writing, writing assignments across disciplinary fields, and rhetorical approaches to text encoding. Currently I serve as co-President of the Canadian Association for the Study of Discourse and Writing (CASDW), the

The writing process: 3 keys to success

Getting started

- Explore the assignment
- Make rough notes
- Pick a tentative topic

Getting feedback

- Make an appointment at the centre for writers
- Get feedback on your draft/revise

Revising

- Work on style and lower order concerns
- Proofread, consult checklist for assignment

Two assignments, but related

Proposal + bibliography

- Due?
- 10%
- 3 citations in APA or MLA format

Research paper;

tool or document + analysis;

creative work + analysis

- 20%
- 5 pages, 12pt Times New Roman, double-spaced, 1 inch margins, one-sided
- Title page, intro, body, conclusion

Key course concepts

Proposal & Bibliography

- Title
- Statement of topic
- Purpose & objective
- Research questions
- Organization
- Bibliography

Final Project Proposal & Bibliography

1-page (approximately 300 words)

1. An interesting title

What the project is about

2. A clear statement of your topic (1 sentence)

3. A statement of purpose or objective (1-3 sentences)

Why are you writing about this topic?

What is important about this topic?

4. A clear “research” question

What questions are guiding your work?

5. Approach to topic
(organization)

Option 1: Research Paper

7-8 pages; min. 5 academic sources; thesis driven argument

Verbs: demonstrate engagement with key course concepts

- How do you demonstrate engagement?
- What makes for a logical argument?
- What counts for evidence in this paper?

Audience

- Who is the audience for the research paper?
- What does it mean to be scholarly?

*BPH, p.
14-16*

*LPH, p.
18-19*

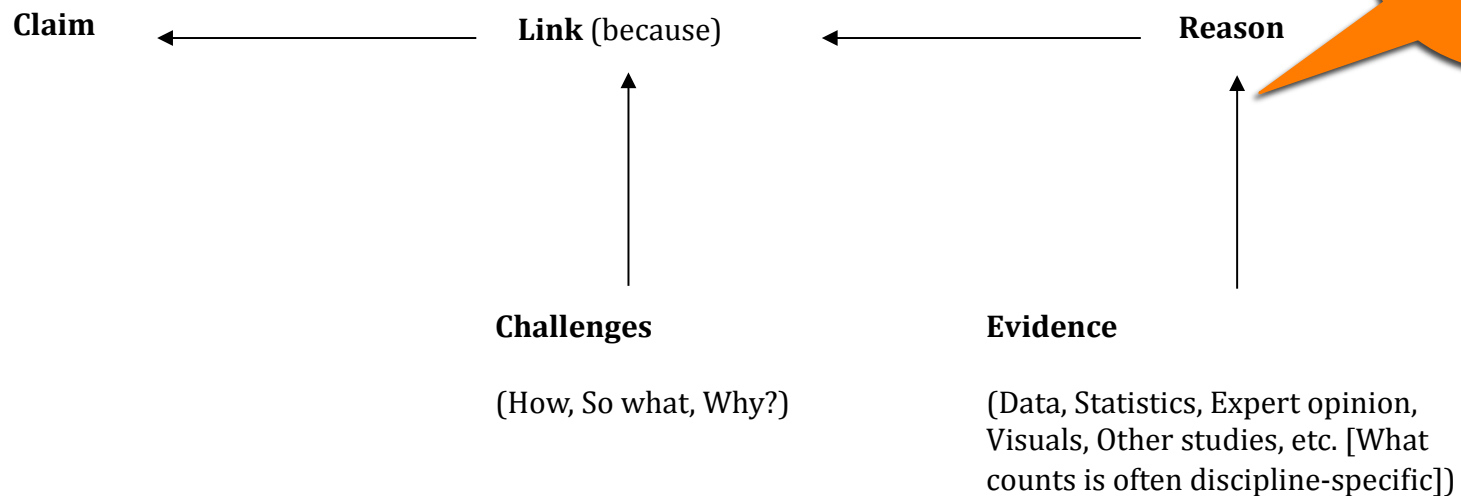

Thesis statements

- Specific: clear stance
- Manageable
- Interesting
- Animal training is a crucial responsibility of pet ownership for pets that interact with visitors to the home or that venture into public spaces because these kinds of pets, when untrained, may pose threats to public safety.

Informal Argument and Academic Writing

Ex. [this study] will be a unique scholarly contribution as very few studies genuinely combine oral history and the documentary record.

From topic to thesis

- Translate that topic into a thesis by stating what your attitude is to that topic
- Shepherding lessons provide benefits beyond the immediate purpose of gathering and moving stock because the same commands used in the field help control and discipline dogs at home and in public places.

Possible thesis statements?

- Because community service learning benefits the population served, the students doing the service, and the society it should be funded and supported more than regular courses.
- CSL should be funded and supported more than regular courses because community service learning benefits the population served, the students doing the service, and society generally.

Option 2: Community Tool/Document

- Document plus critical analysis
- Analysis: 4-6 pages describing your process of developing the tool/document and the outcomes of developing it
- 3 academic sources
- Cannot duplicate work in the placement

Audience

- What makes the analysis critical?
- Who is the audience for the tool/document?
- Why the three academic sources?
- How do you know a source is “academic”?

BPH, p.
211-237

Proposal worksheet: tool

Topic
Purpose/objective
Research question

Organization of analysis

- Explain/describe process of creating the tool/document
- Describe how the tool/document is used
- Justify the significance of the tool/document
- Refer to key course concepts

Option 3: Creative work

- Explore and analyze an issue
- Relate to course; engage with course content
- Apply course materials and your experiences to this topic
- Creativity?
- Analysis—same as previous slide

Proposal worksheet: creative

Drafting/Revising

- Get a “trusted reader” to get feedback
- Consider using other students in the course or the writing centre for this
- Ask readers to read for specific purposes: thesis, structure, transitions, development of a particular paragraph or idea

Don't hand in a first draft

Towards the due date, switch your focus from higher-order concerns (arrangement, arguments, evidence) to lower-order concerns: proofreading, grammar, citation format, grammar/spelling
