Sex, Love and Marriage explores the joys and sorrows as well as the pitfalls and dangers of human sexuality in the light of the teaching of the Catholic Church. Paul Flaman writes with the authority of his own commitment to Jesus and of the profound scholarship he puts at its service.

This engaging and reflective book challenges the reader to explore the deeper questions behind the Church's misunderstood teachings about human sexuality and marriage. Sex, Love and Marriage is historical, theological, scriptural and philosophical and yet at the same time very accessible and applicable to everyone's life. Throughout the book you will find yourself both challenged and affirmed. ~Theresa Robinson [B.A. in Child and Youth Care, M.Div., Catholic Campus Minister, Wife and Mother]

. . . a most fascinating and engaging book; it will be of great value to everyone who is interested in knowing more about this great mystery of the human experience —from couples preparing for the sacrament of marriage, to devout Christians looking to expand their knowledge of this subject, to teachers and catechists who contribute to the moral and religious formation of young people. ~Deacon Carlos Lara [husband and father]

Paul Flaman takes us on a journey from the lecture theatre into everyday life. The reader will find wide medical and theological resources, differing opinions and insightful questions for both personal and group use. ~Archbishop Sean Larkin

. . . a valuable resource for religious educators or any other professional development session. The book addresses our deepest human longings and how to experience authentic fulfillment and joy. ~Anna Severin [B.Ed., M.E.S. Student, Catholic Educator]

Sex, Love and Marriage: these are precious goods given by God, our Creator and Redeemer. In today' s world, these values are often obscured by the ideas of our secularized societies. I would recommend the reading of Dr. Paul Flaman' s book to a large public, to seminarians and to lay people. On many important topics one will find and understand what the Catholic Church teaches in the name of Jesus Christ. ~Fr. Robert Gauthier [PSS; BA, STB, LTh, STL. Fr. Gauthier is part of the seminary formation team at St. Joseph's Seminary in Edmonton and he is a professor of moral theology at NewmanTheologicalCollege in Edmonton.]
