

Feminism(s) in the Third Wave

May 11 – 14, 2006

University of Alberta

Feminism(s) in the Third Wave

A Student Led Undergraduate Conference

May 11-14, 2006

University of Alberta, Edmonton

Calling Women's Studies and other undergraduate students, community members, activists, graduate students, and faculty to submit proposals for paper presentations, verbal art, or 2D/3D artwork. Alternative forms and formats are welcome.

This conference is designed to interrogate and bridge the gaps between academia and activism in the undergraduate student experience. Come and share how you think feminist theory and feminist practice can work together in collaborative and critical ways to address the multiplicity of voices taken up by feminism(s).

Suggested topics include, but are by no means limited to:

Aboriginal women indigenous women/feminism women of colour
whiteness
queerness
sexuality
sex/gender
trans-sex/trans-gender identities & intersections subjectivity & provisional identities post-modernism
post-structuralism
post-colonialism
international development

femininity & masculinity female misogynists & male feminists body
fertility mothering
sexual assault & violence law and policy feminist histories & revolutions anti-oppression & progressive movements alt media & culture jamming grrrrl power & young women's feminism post-feminism/anti-feminism cyber-feminism
community & home

Deadline for submissions: February 15, 2006

For more info on the conference and on how to submit a proposal, email wsua@ualberta.ca or visit www.ualberta.ca/~wsua

WSIA
c/o Women's Studies Program
13-15 H M Tory
Building
University of Alberta
Edmonton Alberta
T6G 2H4
ph 780 492 7078
e-mail wsua@ualberta.ca www.ualberta.ca/~wsua