INFINITE POSSIBILITIES AWAIT YOU

AT ONE OF CANADA’S GREATEST UNIVERSITIES!

Find Your Program
Picking the perfect program for you is important, which is why we have 200+ to choose from across our three main teaching campuses. Visit uab.ca/programs to explore program options and admission requirements, or uab.ca/averages for a list of historical admission averages.

Kick-Start Your Career
University is meant to be spent beyond the classroom, which is why we have so many opportunities to enrich your degree that make our graduates some of the most employable in the world.

Work While You Study
As a post-secondary study permit holder, you can work while you study full time and for up to three years after graduation under the Post-Graduation Work Permit Program. Working as a full-time student can help you gain better language skills, make new friends and earn extra income all while exploring post-graduation opportunities.

Your Success is Our Goal
From immigration and academic advising, to health care and mental wellness, to student-led organizations and groups, you are supported at every step of your journey by a network of services. Support specific to international students is available at International Student Services. uab.ca/iss

English Language Proficiency
In addition to the general admission requirements for your program, you will need to demonstrate English Language Proficiency (ELP) or French Language Proficiency (FLP). Head online for a full list of ways to meet ELP. uab.ca/languagereqs
