

AFNS Academic Integrity and Ethics Training Requirement

All graduate students at the University of Alberta are required to complete 8 hours of Academic Integrity and Ethics Training. Students in AFNS must complete this requirement in the first term of their graduate program. Students complete INT D 710 and/or INT D 720 plus the online CORE course. Details about INT D 710 and 720 can be found on the FGSR website: <https://www.ualberta.ca/graduate-studies/professional-development/ethics/new-ethics/index.html>

Please note: If you completed the GET course you do not need to take INT D 710 or 720.

- Master's students register in INT D 710 via Bear Tracks and complete the course in eClass.
- Doctoral students register in INT D 710 and INT D 720 via Bear Tracks and complete the course in eClass.
- Complete the online CORE course - <https://tcps2core.ca/welcome>. Please email the certificate of completion to grad.ales@ualberta.ca.