WHAT CAN I DO WITH A CLASSICS DEGREE?

Anything you want! Seriously! A background in Classics makes you well-suited to many career paths. I COULD BE A... lawyer, politician, public service and non-profit professional; film and television producer, journalist, writer, editor, public relations/marketing; teacher, university professor, director of historic sites and museums; commercial archeologist, archivist, librarian.

OR WORK WITH... museum and historic sites curators, interpretation work with museums, art galleries and heritage organizations, public-sector arts administration.

TOP 5 REASONS TO STUDY CLASSICS

1. Gain a cross-cultural perspective on some of the most influential texts of world civilization (read in English or in the original language), and the material culture of civilizations that shaped the modern world.

2. Develop abilities in critical analysis, creative thinking, and effective oral and written communication. Courses in Latin and Greek also deepen students’ understanding of language and English vocabulary.

3. Our W.G. Hardy Museum, with its collection of Near Eastern and Classical antiquities, offers volunteer opportunities and other ways to prepare students for a career in museums.

4. The History and Classics Undergraduate Society holds study sessions, movie and game nights, and a book club. Students can publish in Constellations, our undergraduate journal.

5. Our annual archaeological field school in Greece and our study-tour of Greece offer hands-on experience.

WE ARE ALL TREATY PEOPLE
