BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONORS)

MODERN LANGUAGES AND CULTURAL STUDIES

MLCS

Modern Languages and Cultural Studies is the study of languages, cultures, texts, and contexts. How do I say “welcome” in Arabic, Swedish, or American Sign Language (ASL)? How do the arts reflect cultural traditions? How can we better communicate across borders? What does language say about our changing society?

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A MLCS HONORS DEGREE?

I COULD BE A... foreign service officer, translator, journalist, community outreach co-ordinator, project manager, language teacher, researcher.

OR WORK IN... education, foreign service, business, translation, journalism, law, international organizations, tourism, government.

TOP 5 REASONS TO STUDY MLCS

- 1 Develop critical thinking in cross-cultural perspectives and hone your oral and written communication skills to become a leader of tomorrow’s increasingly multicultural society.
- 2 Practise using your language skills and knowledge of other cultures beyond the classroom by volunteering through Community Service-Learning or participating in an Arts Work Experience internship. Earn credits toward your degree at the same time.
- 3 Create your own path with flexible learning options: study multiple languages and cultures for breadth or take a deep dive into one language or region.
- 4 Our award-winning teachers and small classes offer individual attention and an in-depth learning experience where students discover how language, literature, and cultures are interconnected.
- 5 Study abroad for a rewarding first-hand experience with a foreign language and culture, improved fluency, and increased skill in communicating across cultures.

 NAVIGATE COURSES

EARLY DEGREE

Expand your career options, be proactive and get involved in campus life.

Take a language course in your first year and check out International Week on campus.

Learn more about Indigenous peoples, perspectives, and worldviews.

Get to know your fellow Honors students and participate in department events.

MID-DEGREE

Take risks, try new things, ask for and offer help to people you know and people you meet.

Find a faculty mentor and apply to BA Honors.

Study abroad in an immersive summer program, or for a fall or winter semester, and get up to 15 credits toward your degree. You might even consider an international internship.

Reflect on what you're learning and practise self-care. Utilize campus supports.

Start networking: Get involved with one of the cultural clubs on campus or participate in a student conference.

LATE DEGREE

Develop and revise your career story based on your values, interests, and what you learn.

Prepare for your next step such as graduate studies, professional programs, or employment, with a visit to the Career Centre.

Stay on track to graduate: Complete a Program Check on Bear Tracks.

Considering grad school? Ask a professor to be an academic reference

Plan your degree path and meet your advisor.

Test your career options: volunteer on or off campus or apply to Arts Work Experience — it might even count toward your degree.
