Indigenous Student Mentor – Peer Educators
Augustana Student Services

Description:
- The Indigenous Student Mentor Program Peer Educator position is a student leadership position that works closely with Augustana’s Indigenous Student Services Office to help welcome, support, and mentor Indigenous students new to campus, and to build community among our Indigenous students. Students will be provided professional development training in first aid, mental health first aid, fire extinguisher use, sexual violence training, and more.

Responsibilities:
- Connecting with Indigenous students on a regular basis via email, in-person, and in groups.
- Provide friendship, guidance and encouragement to support Indigenous students’ transition to and continuing university life at Augustana.
- Helping new and continuing and Indigenous students become acquainted with and access resources, programs, and opportunities available on campus and in Camrose.
- Work with other peer mentors and Indigenous Student Services Coordinator.
- Organize, attend, and participate in Indigenous Student Services orientation, events, workshops, and other activities that focus on Indigenous students and initiatives.

Qualifications:
- Any undergraduate Indigenous (First Nations, Metis, and Inuit)
- 2nd year or higher enrolled at Augustana
- No specific job experience or expertise is required

Term of Employment:
- Late August 2023 - April 2024

Rate of Pay:
- $20/hr; 5 hours per week (flexible)

How and when to Apply:
- Position will remain open until filled
- Students should send a resume and cover letter describing their interest in the position to Augustana Indigenous Student Services, Victoria Delorme, augustana.iss@ualberta.ca