Dean’s Message

2015 is certainly shaping up to be a great year for the Alberta School of Business. We returned from the Christmas break to news that our MBA program is now ranked in the top four percent of all business schools worldwide and is tied for No. 3 in Canada. This makes me very proud of all of our accomplishments and of the tremendous team effort that contributes to our success. It is also wonderful news for our MBA students and graduates.

While mindful of the impact slumping oil prices will have on our provincial economy and those in the public and private sector, I remain incredibly optimistic vis-à-vis our school’s future. Alberta has been here before, and I am heartened by the fact our faculty, alumni and students continue to be part of the needed solutions to market and policy challenges—people remain our province’s most important resource.

One person who has weathered his fair share of economic highs and lows during a long career in finance is our 2015 Canadian Business Leader Award winner, a former Canadian Wheat Board President...
