Class Readings

1. The Library lends out copies of many textbooks stocked by the Bookstore. This effort is known as our Textbook Initiative.
2. We acquire only textbooks that are both priced over $50 and required (ie., not just recommended).
3. If we can purchase an ebook version of a textbook, we do so.
4. If no ebook is available, we buy print copies.
5. Business textbooks are kept in the Cameron Course Materials room.
6. Print textbooks can generally be borrowed for two hours at a time.

Using Google Scholar

Selected Databases for PhD students:

1. Discipline literature: Business Source Complete, Proquest One Business, Econlit, Science Direct
2. Citation databases: Web of Science, Scopus
3. Preprints/working papers: NBER Working Papers, RePEc, arXiv
4. Research Methodology: Sage Research Methods, CARMA (Center for the Advancement of Research Methods & Analysis)

The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Search the Library: Includes a "Search Guide" button, a note "CCID required - don't have a CCID? Use our Public Catalogue", a search input field with the placeholder "Search articles, books, journals, and media", a "Search" button, a checkbox for "Limit your search to the library catalogue", and an "Advanced Search" link. Below are buttons for "Find Databases", "Find eJournals", and "Google Scholar".
- Course Materials & Reading Lists: Includes a "Talis Aspire" button and links for "Creating a Reading List" and "Reserving Course Materials".
- Citations & Reference Management: Includes a button for "Citations & Reference Management".
- Book Study Space: Includes a button for "Book Study Space".
- Chat with Us: Includes a "Chat Hours" link, a chat window with a text input field and a "Submit" button, and a "Type your message here..." placeholder.
