Cancer Research Institute of Northern Alberta (CRINA)
Oversight Board - Terms of Reference

UAlberta Institute Policy
Each academic centre or institute will report to a Dean, except in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the Provost when an academic centre or institute may report directly to a Vice-President (UAPPOL Centres & Institutes Policy).

Introduction
The Cancer Research Institute of Northern Alberta (CRINA) is a pan-University of Alberta (U of A) initiative that integrates and builds upon existing research strengths in cancer research to create a comprehensive cancer program, wherein patient care is intertwined with scientific discovery. By fostering collaboration and supporting research excellence, CRINA will enhance the university's translational science capabilities and competitiveness, leading to new breakthroughs and improved healthcare outcomes and delivery. CRINA will coordinate existing discovery and applied cancer research assets, and will build new research capacity and capabilities that will enable trans-disciplinary research and will promote a culture of innovation and translation.

Purpose
The Oversight Board is constructed to allow key stakeholder input into CRINA’s strategy.

Roles and Responsibilities
