Coming soon - new look!!

The screenshot shows a user interface for the University of Alberta Libraries. At the top left is the university's crest logo. To its right, the text "UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA LIBRARIES" is displayed in green. Below this, a heading reads "Library resources for this course:" followed by a bullet point: "• Alberta Business and Economics Subject Guide". Underneath, the text "Start Your Search Subject Guides" is shown in a large, bold font. At the bottom of the interface is a prominent green button with the white text "Ask Us". The entire interface is set against a background of colorful, abstract geometric patterns.

The screenshot shows the University of Alberta Libraries website. At the top, there is a green header with the university logo and the text "UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA LIBRARIES". Below the header, there is a navigation bar with links for "Home", "Subject Guides", "Education", "Teaching Religion & Ethics", and "Home". The main content area is titled "Teaching Religion & Ethics" and features a search bar, a "Contact with us:" section, and a "COUTTS" logo. A sidebar on the left lists various resources: Home, Alberta Curriculum, Articles, Books, First Nations, Métis and Inuit Perspectives, Online Resources, Religious Studies, St. Joseph's College Library, and Videos. The main content area includes a description of the guide, a contact information section for the Coutts Library Public Service Team, and a contact email address: educoref@ualberta.ca. A small image of a tree is visible in the bottom right corner of the screenshot.
