The Order of Canada

Luis Jacob will speak about two recent exhibitions that thematized the repercussions of silencing in art institutions. A backlash is in progress within the Toronto arts community and beyond. How can we see erasure? How can we hear silencing?

Luis Jacob is a Peruvian-born, Toronto-based artist whose work destabilizes viewing conventions and invites collisions of meaning. Since participating in documenta12 in 2007, he has achieved an international reputation — with numerous important exhibitions internationally and across Canada.
