

Raneece Buddan

Artist in Residence (Sculpture)

Material Exploration: A Way Home

In this talk Raneece details her practice as an interdisciplinary Artist who is led by the material in her art making. She discusses the use of different art practices as a way to reconnect to different cultures while also navigating the discomforts this may cause to arise.

Raneece's artwork has been exhibited throughout Alberta at the Art Gallery of Alberta, Southern Alberta Art Gallery, Gallery@501, Stride Gallery, Latitude 53, SNAP Gallery, Stollery Gallery and the TREX Traveling Exhibition. She has also shown internationally through Artsy and in New York and Vermont. Raneece has completed Artist Residencies in Edmonton, Alberta, Salem, New York and most recently in Mandelieu-La-Napoule, France.
