

Emily Jan

Artist, writer, and educator
Amiskwaciwâskahikan, Treaty 6 territory

Tuesday March 10 2026
in-person FAB 2-20, 5.15 pm

The road to Wayfinders

Emily Jan will speak about the process of mounting her work in the Wayfinders exhibition at the Art Gallery of Alberta, which includes the first Alberta showing of the 2022 installation Kali Yuga I: Footsteps, and the brand-new work Lord of Beasts, the first in a lens-based series called Gods of the Future World. Jan will talk about her sculptural process, her 2025 residency at KIAC (the Klondike Institute for Art and Culture in Dawson City, Yukon Territory), and the work of shifting gears in mid-life and mid-career.

Emily Jan is an artist, writer, and educator based in Amiskwaciwâskahikan / Edmonton, AB, on Treaty 6 territory. Jan has exhibited nationally and internationally, including at the Art Gallery of Alberta, Contemporary Calgary, the Textile Museum of Canada, the Doris McCarthy Gallery, the Art Gallery of Southwestern Manitoba, and the 10e Biennale Nationale de Sculpture Contemporaine.