Letters should be emailed directly by the referee to chemgrad@ualberta.ca

Part 4: Teaching Accomplishments and Philosophy

- In no more than 300 words, discuss your teaching accomplishments and philosophy.

Part 5: Research Productivity (Do not submit your publications)

A. Refereed publications

- List books, book chapters and articles appearing in refereed publications or conference proceedings first, beginning with the most recent.
- List publications of which you are the author or co-author and which are published, in press, and/or accepted for publication in refereed journals.
- Begin each entry on a new line and provide complete bibliographic notices (including co-authors, title, publisher, journal, volume, date of publication, number of pages, etc) as they appear in the original publication. Specify your role in co-authored publications. Forthcoming publications should be listed only if they have been formally accepted for publication (indicate date of acceptance by the editor).
- Place an asterisk (*) in front of each entry that has been generated while in the graduate program in the Department of Chemistry.

☐ Check if this section is not applicable, i.e., you have no refereed publications.

type or copy/paste your listing here, using a 10 pt font such as Times or Helvetica; formatting such as italics may be used; you will need to scroll to the next section rather than tabbing

B. Non-refereed contributions and presentations

- List papers in non-refereed journals, book reviews, reports, and conference presentations.
- Begin each entry on a new line and provide complete bibliographic notices (including co-authors, title, publisher, journal, volume, date of publication, number of pages, etc.) as they appear in the original publication. Specify your role in co-authored publications and conference presentations. Forthcoming contributions should be listed only if they have been formally accepted for publication.
- For conference presentations indicate whether it was an oral or poster presentation.
- Group your entries together; i.e., publications, then conference presentations, then reports, etc.
- Place an asterisk (*) in front of each entry that has been generated while in the graduate program in the Department of Chemistry.

☐ Check if this section is not applicable, ie. You have no non-refereed contributions.
