Making Sense of Vaccines:

Answers to common questions and misconceptions
about adult immunization

DR. ROBYN HARRISON

Clinical Professor
Department of Medicine

FREE PUBLIC WEBINAR

Join us for a conversation with physicians from the Department of Medicine for a practical, evidence-informed discussion about vaccines and immunization.

Learn how vaccines help protect against infectious diseases, why annual vaccines such as the flu shot are recommended, and what current medical understanding tells us about their benefits, safety, and effectiveness.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2026
6 - 7 p.m.
