KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Learn about development of a research program for pregnancy care in the emergency department, management of health systems data, and creation of culturally sensitive research.

5 + 1 CLINICAL TOPICS

Speakers present five recent studies in their field that all physicians practicing emergency medicine should know, and highlight one of their own research interests. This year's topics: Infectious Diseases and Cardiology.

ABSTRACT COMPETITION

Presentations are three minutes long, and feature completed, in progress, or future studies. Cash prizes for the best student, resident, and attending staff presentations.
