

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA MUSEUMS VISITOR REGULATIONS

Please read this document thoroughly and share it with any other visitors that may be accompanying you on your visit. Following these regulations will help ensure the security and preservation of the objects in the collection for future students, researchers, and visitors.

- Visitors must sign in (name, organization, purpose, and entry time) when they enter collection areas for security purposes
- No food, drink or gum chewing is permitted in collection areas or exhibit areas
- Coats, large bags and briefcases are not permitted in collection areas or exhibit areas
- Use pencil only for taking notes. Pens are not permitted in collection areas or exhibit areas
- Please watch your step and be mindful of other visitors around you. An accidental movement may cause damage to collection materials
- Visitors are not permitted to handle artifacts. Touching artifacts with bare skin can leave permanent marks caused by dirt, oils and perspiration
- Photography (without flash) is allowed in the collection areas with prior consent from the University of Alberta Museums

Thank you for your care of the University of Alberta Museums'

Collections during your visit.
