KATERI BBQ – JULY 18

St. Joseph's College is happy to host a BBQ on July 18 after the 4:30pm Mass. You are very welcome, no matter which Mass you typically attend.

Hamburgers, hot dogs, and fixings will be provided. Please bring a salad, side, dessert, or non-alcoholic drinks to share.

RSVP by July 12 using the QR code. This lets us know how many burgers and hot dogs to prepare, and how many gluten free and vegetarian options will be needed. It also lets people sign up to help with the event.

COFFEE HOUR AND CHILDREN'S LITURGY

The last children's liturgy of the year will be on Sunday, June 28th. The children will sing a "Hosanna" song at the end of mass on that day.

We've traditionally had a summer break for the coffee social team simultaneous with the children's liturgy summer break. Thus, June 28th will also be the last coffee Sunday until the fall. Thank you to the volunteers who made these happen.

If you are a student reading this, please note that volunteer activity looks very good on a resumé, especially for those hoping to teach in the Catholic Schools. The volunteer screening for those who work with children is a long process, so start early!

SACRAMENTAL PREP CLASSES

St. Joe's was able to have a confirmation class this past year, but will probably not have enough young people to make it worthwhile this year. If you have a young person who needs confirmation, they will likely need to wait a year, or go through the program in another parish.

If you have a child who needs first reconciliation and first communion, you will need to reach out to one of the bigger parishes. Please be aware that some sacramental prep courses have very early deadlines – sometimes in August! So don't delay.

PARKING REGISTRATION

The demand for parking at the U of A is much more relaxed in the summer than during the school year. Starting next week (June 20/21) the parking lot will be on leave alone, and you will not need to enter your license plates.

We will review the whole process later in the summer.

NEW TO ST. JOE'S?

There have been some new faces at mass lately, and I really hope that you feel welcome here. If you ever have any questions, please feel free to ask a priest after mass, or to email me at the email address at the bottom right of the front page of this bulletin. You can also email me to get added to the mailing list for the bulletin.

There are guest donation envelopes on the racks in the foyer – please feel free to use them; they can also be used to request permanent envelopes. Information about online donations and pre-authorized giving is on the back of this page, under “at a glance.”

The Our Daily Bread booklets are provided by a generous donor. Please feel free to take one.

The parking lot of the Kateri Women's residence (the building behind us) is available during weekend mass times. But not for weekday masses: sorry.

You can request to have masses said, either for the deceased or for the intentions of the living. We have mass cards with art from our chapel, if you need them. The suggested offering for a mass is $10.
