KATERI BBQ - JULY 12

The annual Kateri community BBQ is coming up! It is on the Saturday nearest the July 14 feast of St. Kateri Tekakwitha. (Her feast day in Canada is actually in April, but that is too early for a BBQ, so we are going with her American feast day.) There will be a bouncy castle and hamburgers provided by the SJC kitchen.

Please bring a salad, side, dessert, or non-alcoholic drinks to share.

RSVP by July 7 here, or use the QR code. Please RSVP so we know how many hamburgers to cook, and especially how many gluten free or vegetarian options we will need.

NEW TO ST. JOE'S?

There have been some new faces at mass lately, and I really hope that you feel welcome here. If you ever have any questions, please feel free to ask a priest after mass, or to email me at the email address at the bottom right of this page. You can also email me to get added to the mailing list for this bulletin.

There are guest donation envelopes on the racks in the foyer – please feel free to use them; they can also be used to request permanent envelopes. Information about online donations and pre-authorized giving is on the back of this page, under “at a glance.”

The Our Daily Bread booklets are provided by a generous donor. Please feel free to take one.

The parking lot of the Kateri Women's residence (the building behind us) is available during weekend mass times. But not for weekday masses: sorry.

You can request to have masses said, either for the deceased or for the intentions of the living. We have mass cards with art from our chapel, if you need them. The suggested offering for a mass is $10.

INCENSE AT ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE CHAPEL

SJC Chapel has never used much incense. Only on Holy Thursday, the Easter Vigil, and at a few solemn evening prayer liturgies throughout the semester. However, the chaplains have become aware that there are few if any places for Catholics who are allergic to incense to worship in Edmonton. A few of them have found their way here. Providentially, it was just after the pews received a thorough cleaning and the carpets were shampooed. It seems a shame that they would not be able to celebrate Easter with us, at least without suffering painful migraines as a result.

If you have thoughts on this matter, please email them to me at jim.stenberg@ualberta.ca or talk to either of the priests after mass.

SJC DINING HALL REOPENS JULY 1

In July the dining hall will reopen for lunch during the week: 11:30 am to 1:30 pm. There will be no food service open to the public on weekends.

Beginning July 1 the building will be open from 11:30 pm – 4:00pm (opening half an hour earlier than now). The building will continue be open for mass and confession times on Saturday from 2:30pm – 5:00pm and for the Sunday morning mass times from 8:00am – 12:00pm.

SACRISTY SPRING CLEANING

The sacristy received a long overdue spring cleaning over the last few weeks. A lot of the accumulated clutter was gotten rid of. However, the remote controls for the fans in the chapel were inadvertently discarded as well. The maintenance staff is in the process of getting some universal remote controls to take back control of the fans. It's possible, however, that the fans may need to be replaced. I'm sorry that this is happening just as the hot weather is about to arrive.
