PRESIDENTIAL REVIEW

President Dr. Shawn W. Flynn has indicated his intention to continue as President of St. Joseph's College. His current term is set to expire on June 30, 2026, and in accordance with College Policy, President Flynn advised the Board of Governors Chair and Vice Chair, in writing, of his desire to serve another term.

With President Flynn's notice of intention, and per Board-approved guidelines, the Governance Committee, acting with delegated authority from the Board of Governors, has initiated a review process.

The review of President Flynn's term is standard best practice across the sector and in compliance with our (SJC) Policy. The fundamental purpose of the term review is to strengthen the effectiveness of the President by gathering input, in confidence, from across the Campus, and with external stakeholders. The term review will be a robust process, led by the Vice Chair of the Board of Governors, and will involve consultations with stakeholders and a review of key materials.

We expect to complete the review and conclude the process in time for the June meeting of the Board of Governors.

It is an important time for the College, and the Board deeply appreciates your participation, as well as your prayers.

An on-line survey access link will be available in the next Bulletin.
