REMEMBRANCE DAY & READING WEEK

The College will be closed on Monday, November 11, in observance of Remembrance Day. This upcoming week is Reading Week at the U of A, so things will be quieter. There will, however, be daily mass at the usual times, except for Monday.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE FALL CAMPAIGN

Archbishop Smith invites us to participate the 2024 fall campaign, "Reaping Our Rights." This year, we are called to stand in solidarity with peasant farmers who care for the Earth by signing the action card.

NEW FACES AT ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

St. Joseph's College welcomes Debbie Buchynski, our new Director of Advancement. Debbie has over 15 years of Fund Development, Communications, and Marketing experience in senior leadership positions in Edmonton.

Debbie joins us from the United Way of Alberta Capital region. She has also served as the Director of Donor and Stakeholder Relations for the Edmonton Humane Society, the Director of Communications, Donor Relations and Fund Development for E4C, the Director of Fund Development for the Fringe, and also as the Director of Development at the King's University. This is all supported by early career work at Enbridge as the Supervisor of Communications, Government and Public Relations, among other positions. Debbie joined us on October 7th.

St. Joseph's College also welcomes Karen Groleau, who joins us as the new Executive Assistant to the President and the Board.

Karen comes to SJC after a 36 year career at ATCO Electric Ltd. and ATCO Power as an Administrative Assistant and Executive Assistant. For the last 13 years she was the Executive Assistant for multiple ATCO VP's, most recently the VP of Projects & Construction. Karen supports this experience with training at NAIT in Administration, as well as training in Incident Command Systems. She will begin on November 12th.

NEW ON FORMED

Here are some of the upcoming programming on FORMED.
Instructions on logging on to our FORMED account is in the side bar.

Why Does the Church Canonize People?

Dr. Elizabeth Klein and Taylor Kemp discuss canonization: its definition, history, and how it works. Why do we honor the communion of saints? What leads to saints' official incorporation into public worship? What about miracles? Learn all about these topics in this episode.

St. Ephrem the Syrian | Catholic Saints

An Eastern Father of the early Church, St. Ephrem the Syrian did not write many treatises or letters, but devoted himself to writing hymns to God. These hymns contain a wealth of knowledge and teaching that elegantly weaves together images from the Old and New Testaments.

What is the Divine Liturgy? | Catholic Rites

Join Dr. Elizabeth Klein and Fr. Joel Barstad as they discuss the nature of Byzantine piety, Divine Liturgy, and the similarities and differences between the Eastern and Latin rites of the Catholic Church. This episode highlights the importance of icons, chanting, veils, and other key features of the Byzantine Divine Liturgy.

SHARE THE CHEER

The University of Alberta is inviting members of the U of A community to share their family traditions and create a warm, welcoming environment for international students who may be far from home. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn about diverse cultures, exchange traditions, and forge meaningful connections.

Who can host?

The University is asking for hosts who are in one or more of the following categories: current employees; members of the Senate or Board of Governors; Graduate students living in off-campus accommodation; U of A alumni.

Hosts must invite a minimum of two international students to join them for lunch, dinner, or an event during the universities winter closure period. Event ideas include: a holiday movie night with hot chocolate and treats; a holiday baking session; a craft night to make seasonal decorations or gifts; an outdoor activity like ice skating, tobogganing, etc.

To register as a host, click here or go to the ualberta.ca website and look under the "International Student + Visitor Services." International students, registration will open on November 15 on that webpage.
