ALBERTA BISHOPS AND THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION

The bishops of Alberta have written a letter to the faithful on the Oct. 20 municipal election. They emphasize the importance of the vote for Catholic School Trustees, and urge the faithful, in a spirit of prayerful discernment, to actively participate in the election. They do not, of course, endorse any particular candidate for any elected office.

The text of the letter can be found on the chapel bulletin, and on the Archdiocesan News page here.

SUNDAY BRUNCH RETURNS!

The Sunday Brunch returns! $45 for a family, or $15 for an individual in the SJC Dining Hall: go down the hallway, past the front doors, and go down the centre stairs. If you've reached the study lounge, you've gone too far. At the bottom of the stairs turn left. There is a buffet that usually includes pancakes or waffles, bacon, sausage, scrambled eggs and all that kind of thing. The hours are 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.

I BELIEVE – TALKS ON THE NICENE CREED

In commemoration of the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, there is a series of talks on the Nicene Creed, jointly sponsored by the Archdiocese of Edmonton, Newman Theological College, and St. Joseph's College. You can watch the YouTube Playlist on the Archdiocese's channel: <https://www.youtube.com/@ArchEdmonton>

READERS AND MUSIC MINISTRY

Thank you to all parishioners who read at mass, and a special thanks to those who sing or play an instrument for the choir. You help make our liturgies special! Some masses need extra help: the choir at the 11:00 am could really use some volunteers, and both the 4:30 pm at the 11:00 am masses need more people to sign up as readers. Thank you in advance!

EDUCATION STUDENTS: PLEASE READ

Before receiving a contract at a Catholic school, prospective teachers will need a pastoral letter of reference to provide evidence that they are practicing Catholics. It is a good idea to get some volunteer experience in at a church, and/or to use envelopes to document your attendance. Introducing yourself to the priest and occasionally chatting with him after (or before) mass so that he remembers you are also very helpful. For volunteer experience, please see the next item.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY: VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

One of the things that makes the 9:30 am Sunday liturgy so special is the Children's Liturgy, which for years has been ably shepherded by Cecilia Liou. But she can't lead the children every week: we need volunteers to lead the children's activities during the first part of the mass. This role is especially suited for Education students and teachers. Among other things, volunteers with these backgrounds will be familiar with the background checks and screening needed to volunteer with children.
