BEYOND THE "EVOLUTION" VS "CREATION" DEBATE

SJC professor Dr. Denis Lamoureux has made his mark exploring the compatibility of evolution and sacred scripture. Please consider attending a free public lecture on this subject:

Time: Thursday, September 25, 5:00-6:30 pm
Place: Central Academic Building (CAB), room 265
University of Alberta

WEEKEND MASS PARKING

The parking lot behind the women's residence is on "leave alone" during mass times on the weekend for people attending mass to park at. Not on weekdays, though! You'll get a ticket if you park there then. The leave alone is for long enough for you to enjoy Sunday brunch in our dining hall (hint, hint), but don't stay there all day.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic Adoration has resumed after the summer break. It takes place on Fridays at 7:00 pm in the main chapel. You may wish to contact uofacsa@ualberta.ca and ask to be put on the CSA mailing list; if for some reason adoration will not take place (e.g. during Christmas break), you will read about it in the weekly newsletter.

SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE

Explore your spiritual nature more deeply: spiritual direction is available for everyone at SJC. Members of the worshipping community may contact Sr. Elizabeth at elizabethfcj@gmail.com

ENVELOPES AND DONATIONS

If you wish to have personalized envelopes for weekly donations, please email sjcpay@ualberta.ca and we can get you set up. Please pick up your envelopes from the priest, though. We still have boxes for people who ordered them months ago.

CONFIRMATION CLASS AT SJC

If you have a young person (no younger than grade 6) who wishes to be confirmed this coming spring/summer, please plan to be present at SJC on the following Sundays from 10:45 am until noon: Oct 19, Nov 2, Nov 23, Jan 11, Jan 25, Feb 8, Mar 1, and Mar 22. These are the dates and times the confirmation class will meet. The meetings will be led by our own Dr. Matt Hoven, and a parent volunteer will be needed at each session.

On two Thursday afternoons, the group will go to volunteer at a Catholic charity, visit a monastery/church, etc.: Nov 20 or 27, and Feb 19 or 26 (TBD). These details are still being finalized.

Classes will take place in the boardroom at St. Joseph's College. Each classroom session will involve stories of witnesses to faith (saints and everyday Catholics), connections to theology (creed, liturgy, moral life, prayer), time for reflection and discussion, games, short videos/readings, and a little bit of homework for the "off" week to be done with family (e.g., watch an animation of a gospel story and discuss it).

Please email Matt at cmhoven@gmail.com to express your interest in taking part. Once on the list, parents will receive the appropriate paperwork to be completed.

MASS ATTENDANCE UP

It's not your imagination: the Sunday masses are more popular this year. Last Sunday was up 29% from 2024. But if you don't like crowds, consider trying the 4:30pm mass: it has half the attendance as the 11:00 pm.

AT A GLANCE...

Thursday: Alcoholics Anonymous
7:00 pm in boardroom.
