RESIDENCE AVAILABILITY

One of the main purposes of St. Joseph's College is to provide a place for students to live. At the moment we have spaces in both the men's and the women's residences. We hope that you will have the opportunity to tell someone who is looking for a place to stay that SJC might be that place.

For the women's building, there are currently spots available in either a 2 or 4-bedroom unit. Two of the 4-bedroom units have 2 bedrooms available in them together, so if any friends are hoping to live together, we can also help arrange that. There are also single rooms available in the men's residence.

Depending on where the student currently resides, SJC would be happy to help with lease-breaking fees. Note, however, that the U of A has been cracking down on cancellations and holding residents to pay for their entire lease, so they will just need to check with them first and foremost.

If a student is interested, the next step is to send sjcres@ualberta.ca an email and they can help talk about options. Sending a CCID and Student ID number will allow the College to create an account for the student in the residence portal system.

Even if someone is not able to live in the residence, it is still possible to eat in our dining hall. It is affordable and all-you-can-eat. Email sjcres@ualberta.ca for more information.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Kateri Women's residence began in 2006 when several apartments in a stairwell at HUB were rented together. There was space there for 14 young women. In 2015 the St. Joseph's College Women's Residence opened. It has a capacity of 284; a 2000 percent increase!

At some point the name of the Kateri chapel began to be used for the residence as a whole. St. Kateri, pray for us! St. Joseph, pray for us!

CHAPEL PARKING REMINDER

Please only use the parking promo codes to attend mass at our chapel. If you use them at odd times it stands out and you will attract attention.

CENTENNIAL OF ST. JOSEPH SEMINARY MARCH 19

St. Joseph's College is not the only institution celebrating a 100th anniversary; in 2027 St. Joseph Seminary will celebrate 100 years since its founding.

More than 2000 men have entered its doors to discern God's call in their lives, and 500 have embraced the gift of ordained ministry.

Join the 48 current seminarians for a special celebration at the Edmonton Convention Centre. To learn more, visit https://foundationsjsntc.ca/sjs-100-anniversary/

Please pray for all the young people discerning vocations, and pray that God will send laborers into the vineyard.

ADVENT RETREAT

SJC will host an Advent mini-Retreat near the end of November. It will include faith sharing, small groups, prayer, a talk from Archbishop Stephen Hero, and a Q&A. A free dinner is included!
