HISTORICAL MILESTONES

The next day (Sept 22, 1926) Archbishop O'Leary dedicated the cornerstone, visible on the south wall of the chapel.

The 100th anniversary celebration of the College will kick off in April. The thought is that it is more important to commemorate events like the first classes and first masses. Still, I think this is interesting and worth sharing.

FALL RETREAT

Later this evening the fall retreat begins! The retreatants will hear a talk by Acting President Matthew Kostecky at 6:30 pm, and then attend adoration at 7:00 pm. Most of the retreat will be at Star of the North Retreat Centre, but they will return for the 7:00 pm Student Mass on Sunday evening. The officers of the Catholic Students' Association will be commissioned at this time.

The theme of the retreat is "The Universal Call to Holiness." Please pray for all the participants, speakers and retreatants alike, that their experiences this weekend may bear lasting fruit in their lives.

HONK HOURS (AND OTHER DETAILS)

If you use the parking lot behind the women's residence you need to make sure that you use HONK. Refer to one of the signs in the lot, and be sure to enter the promo code down at the bottom in red, beside the shockingly high price quoted.

The promo code for the Saturday and Sunday morning mass times are valid from 2:30 pm to 7:30 pm on Saturday, and from 8:30 am to 1:30 pm on Sunday. The code for the SJC Student Mass is valid from 5:00 pm to 10:00 pm. Any given code may be used only once in a weekend, and is good for three hours.

Please do not share the code with someone to use for non-Church purposes. I won't share either code here, but I will announce it at mass or tell people individually.
