WORLD DAY OF THE POOR – SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL APPEAL

"The Lord is the refuge of the poor" (Psalm 14:6)

On November 15, the Catholic Church observes the World Day of the Poor. Pope Leo XIV reminds us that we are called to be a refuge for those in need. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul puts this call into action by supporting vulnerable individuals and families in our community.

SSVP Members will distribute appeal letters and donation envelopes after the Sunday 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Masses. Parishioners attending the Saturday 4:30 p.m. Mass or Sunday 7:00 p.m. Student Mass can pick up these materials at the information table outside the chapel. Completed envelopes may be returned the following weekend.

DONATION ENVELOPES & PAD

New boxes of envelopes will go out in December for anyone who currently uses envelopes. If you would like to start using them please contact sjcpay@ualberta.ca, or by checking the box on a guest envelope.

The boxes of envelopes are not mailed to you. You must pick them up.

The donation process can be automated; Pre-Authorized Donations (PADs) can be set up by emailing sjcpay@ualberta.ca. Certain banking numbers are needed; a cancelled check will have all the needed information.
