KATERI BBQ

The deadline for registration is July 7.

That's this coming Monday! There will be a bouncy castle and hamburgers provided by the SJC kitchen.

Please bring a salad, side, dessert, or some non-alcoholic drinks to share. You can RSVP here, or use the QR code, so we know how many hamburgers to cook, and especially how many gluten free or vegetarian options we will need. There is also a need for volunteers to hand out name tags, keep an eye on the kids in the bouncy castle, and so on. You can sign up on the RSVP form. This BBQ is a celebration of our community's involvement and activity, so let's show some of each!

SACRAMENTAL PREP

There are still a lot of details to be worked out, but we will be having a confirmation course this fall. It will start in October, and is being designed with junior high students in mind. More details will be available after Labor Day.

If you have a child who needs first reconciliation and first communion, you will need to reach out to one of the bigger parishes. Please be aware that some sacramental prep courses have very early deadlines – sometimes in August! So don't delay.

COFFEE HOUR AND CHILDREN'S LITURGY

These activities at (and after) the 9:30 mass are on the normal summer break. They will resume in September. Thank you to the volunteers who made these happen: you have truly enriched this community.

I would like to take this time to note, for any students who may be reading this, that volunteer activity looks very good on a resume, and especially for those hoping to teach in the Catholic Schools. Volunteer screening for those who work with children is a long process, so start early!

UPDATE ON CHAPEL CEILING FAN

As mentioned in the last bulletin, the remote controls for the ceiling fans were accidentally discarded during a spring cleaning of the sacristy. Several attempts to get replacements have been unsuccessful, but we are waiting for a package that is due to arrive on July 10. St. Joseph is a patron not only of carpenters, but also of general contractors and handymen. By his intercession, may this issue soon be resolved. The tireless efforts of our maintenance staff will also have something to do with it, of course.

SJC DINING HALL REOPENS

Throughout the month of July the dining hall will be open to the public from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm. Unfortunately, the College does not have the staffing to for service on weekends. Sunday Brunch, if it happens this month, will have to be somewhere other than our cafeteria.

The main building hours are 11:30 pm – 4:00pm , and for mass and confession times on Saturday from 2:30pm – 5:00pm and for the Sunday morning mass times from 8:00am – 12:00pm.

FR. WARREN UPDATE

Fr. Warren has been away out east for the last while, covering for a priest at a Basilian family of parishes in Windsor. He was also kept busy grading exams from his spring course. Now he will be going on his annual retreat, and after that he will be visiting friends in Rochester, New York, where he ministered right after his ordination. Fr. Warren will be attending a memorial service in Rochester for a much beloved priest who died during COVID – Fr. Joe Trovato. Fr. Joe was at the family of parishes where Fr. Warren's first year of ministry took place. Fr. Warren is scheduled to return to Edmonton on July 22.
