

Felicia Magpantay

Born in the Philippines, Dr. Felicia Magpantay's pursuit of post-secondary education was inspired by the diverse perspectives she met abroad at the International Physics Olympiad. She is an associate professor in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics at Queen's University. Her research interests in differential equations and mathematical modeling have implications across various fields, including epidemiology and ecology. A committed role model, Dr. Magpantay shares her journey through academia, demonstrating to her community that they have a place in a STEM career.
