SURVEY DEVELOPMENT AND PURPOSE
To understand the demographic composition of our workforce and to assess progress towards a more diverse institution, the U of A developed a comprehensive demographic census. This will help us to understand where we are now, and set goals for where we want to be in the future.

The EDI Census questionnaire was developed by an on-campus advisory group with expertise in EDI issues and also survey research methods. They consulted widely with many interested individuals and groups across campus, reviewed similar studies completed at other Canadian universities, and relied on Statistics Canada methodology wherever possible. This approach maximizes consistency and comparability with other sources, however, it is recognized that some terminology may not always align with how respondents define their own identities.

U of A community members had the opportunity to review and comment on a draft instrument through focus groups. This input was used to modify the census.

This report balances the need for confidentiality with the desire for complete reporting. To facilitate reporting, while protecting privacy, in some cases response categories were collapsed. While this approach is not ideal, it complies with the conditions under which the information was collected and respects that the survey often deals with private information that many people consider extremely sensitive. All data are confidential and held separately from employment records.

For many questions, respondents could select multiple choices, which means that in these cases the proportions can add to more than 100%.

The entire survey instrument is provided at the end of the report.

The U of A EDI Census was administered in November 2019 to 10,077 employees, 6,003 of whom responded, resulting in a response rate of 59.6%. Full details of the administration are as follows:

1) November 19 The survey was announced in a Quad article
2) November 25 The survey was promoted through a message from the Provost
3) November 26th Invitation email was sent to employees
4) December 2nd First reminder email
5) December 9th Second reminder email
6) December 16th Third and final reminder email
7) December 17th Survey closes
GENDER IDENTITY AND SEXUAL ORIENTATION

Census participants were asked if they identified with one or more of the following genders: Gender-fluid and/or Non-Binary; Man; Transgender; Two-Spirit; or Woman.

Census participants were also asked if they identified as: Asexual; Bisexual; Gay; Heterosexual; Lesbian; Queer; or Two-Spirit.

The majority of survey respondents identify as women, in part because the University employs more women than men. In comparison to men, women had a higher survey response rate.

A majority of respondents identify as heterosexual.

Percentages for both gender identity and sexual orientation total to more than 100% because Census participants could check more than one response.

INDIGENOUS IDENTIFICATION

3.2% of university employees identified as an Indigenous / Aboriginal person.

Slightly more women (3.5%) identified as Indigenous, compared to 2.5% of men.

A large majority of Indigenous employees (86.9%) indicated that they came from Canada, while 13.1% reported that they came from the USA or other countries. Among the Indigenous employees from Canada, 38.8% said they came from a First Nation (either status or non-status), and 64.5% stated that they identified as Métis.

* Response categories have been collapsed to protect privacy.  For privacy reasons, results for the other gender identity groups are suppressed.

Overall, 22.8% of respondents indicated that they identified as a visible minority*. Of those respondents, almost one-third (32.1%) identify as Chinese. The next largest group (20.7%) identify as South Asian.

Amongst employment categories, Post Doctoral Fellows (PDFs) had the highest proportion identifying as visible minority. Administrative Professional Officers (APO) and Excluded Management at 14.7%, had the lowest proportion identifying as visible minority.

Men were more likely to identify as visible minority. One in four men (26.6%) identified as visible minority, compared to one in five women (20.3%). Younger employees were much more likely to report being a visible minority (under 41 = 29.8%; 41 to 60 = 19.1%; 61 and older = 11.6%), as were those with temporary contracts (31.6%) compared to 18.9% of employees in on-going jobs.

* Does not include individuals who self-identified as Indigenous as this was asked in a separate question.

 Response categories have been collapsed to protect privacy.
PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES AND DEAF PERSONS

The census asked, “Do you identify as a person with a disability or a deaf person?” 4.9% of employees said they were “a person with a disability,” while another 1.5% chose the “another identity that should be protected on similar grounds as a disability” response. One-third of one percent said they were “a deaf person”.

Of those respondents who indicated they have a disability, the most common conditions were chronic health and emotional, psychological or mental health issues.

- Using your hands or fingers, or doing other physical activities: 11.4%
- Seeing: 7.8%
- Other challenges (not included in list): 14.1%

When asked about their current relationship status, six out of ten respondents (60.8%) reported that they were married, and 12.6% indicated that they were living in a common-law relationship. Almost one in five (17.8%) said they were single (never legally married) while smaller percentages chose the other three response categories (divorced (5.6%), separated (2.5%), widowed (0.8%)).

Men were more likely than women to be married, while women were more likely to be living in a common-law arrangement or to be single. Those who identified as another gender identity were most likely to be single.

APPENDIX
SURVEY INSTRUMENT
The University of Alberta is committed to having an equitable, diverse, and inclusive workforce, since our teaching, scholarship and other activities take place in a highly diverse society and because a diverse university workforce contributes to varied ideas and perspectives, enriching teaching, scholarship and other activities.

To assess progress toward this commitment, we are conducting a demographic census to collect data on relevant equity, diversity, and inclusion measures. Specifically, we are asking you to answer a short set of questions to help us understand how you identify in each instance. We are asking all university employees to participate to help us obtain an accurate picture of our workforce. Resulting data can then be used to conduct statistical analysis, to identify areas where we may not be meeting our objectives.

Completing this census is completely voluntary. If you do not wish to respond, please check the box at the beginning of the census. You will also have the option to decline to answer any of the specific questions. The census will take less than five minutes to complete.

Thank you for assisting the university with its commitment to having an equitable, diverse, and inclusive workforce.

If for any reason(s) you do NOT wish to complete this survey, please check the box below:

☐ I wish to NOT take the survey (this will bring you to the end of the survey)
