The statutory members of General Faculties Council (GFC) are set out in the GFC Terms of Reference according to provisions in the Post-Secondary Learning Act (PSLA).

- Sections 23 and 24 of the PSLA determine the persons who are members of GFC by virtue of their office (ex-officio) and the number of academic staff members who are elected by their Faculty or School.
- Section 23 requires that the council of the students’ association appoint two student members and that the graduate students’ association appoint one student member.

As set out in section 25 of the PSLA, the statutory members have, in the past, decided to appoint additional members to the GFC composition. In 1971, they voted to include a number of elected student members equal to the number of statutory elected academic staff members on GFC. Undergraduate student members are elected by the students in their Faculty in an election conducted by the UA Students’ Union. The Graduate Students’ Association conducts the election of graduate student members.

Reapportionment of statutory academic staff members is conducted according to section 24 of the PSLA. The number of elected members per Faculty is determined based on the proportion of the total number of full-time academic staff in the Faculty to the total across all Faculties. Each Faculty has at least one academic staff member. Reapportionment of student seats is conducted in a like manner and each Faculty has at least one undergraduate student member.

Reapportionment is the responsibility of the GFC Secretary. The process is conducted every three years, or when the number of academic staff or students in a Faculty changes significantly, or when there is a change to the number of statutory ex-officio seats on GFC.
