Restriction or Embargo on the release of your thesis contents

It is the intention of the University of Alberta that there be no restriction on the distribution and publication of theses. However, in exceptional cases, the student, in consultation with the thesis supervisor(s) and with the approval of the Graduate Coordinator, will have the right to postpone public access for a period of up to two years from the date of the student's convocation.

Restricting the release date requires original signatures of both the author and the Chair of the author's graduate unit.

The original of this form must be submitted to the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research before submitting the thesis

Publication by University of Alberta Libraries and the National Library of Canada is hereby postponed until:

one year after convocation

or two year after convocation

And release date is:

June 15, _____

or

November 15, _____
