

Ethics and Academic Citizenship Requirement
Build a culture of integrity and inclusivity

What are my options for completing my ethics requirement (2021-2022)?

FALL 2021- WINTER 2022	RECOMMENDED	ACCEPTED UNTIL JULY 31, 2022
Master's students who began their program prior to Fall 2021	INT D 710: Ethics and Academic Citizenship [6-hour, self-paced online course; meets the current 8-hour requirement with departmental approval]	A combination of courses/workshops outlined on the Academic Integrity and Ethics Training Requirement Resources website and/or departmental offerings approved for ethics credit (totalling eight hours).
Master's students who begin their program in Fall 2021	INT D 710: Ethics and Academic Citizenship [6-hour, self-paced online course; meets the current 8-hour requirement with departmental approval]	ENGG 600: Engineering Ethics and Professionalism (fulfills the eight hour requirement)
Doctoral students who began their program prior to Fall 2021	INT D 710: Ethics and Academic Citizenship  INT D 720: Advanced Ethics and Academic Citizenship
Doctoral students who begin their program in Fall 2021	INT D 710: Ethics and Academic Citizenship  INT D 720: Advanced Ethics and Academic Citizenship
FALL 2022	MANDATORY
Master's (Course-based and Thesis-based)	INT D 710: Ethics and Academic Citizenship
Doctoral	INT D 710: Ethics and Academic Citizenship  INT D 720: Advanced Ethics and Academic Citizenship (Prerequisite: INT D 710)	