This summary contains the official registration and enrolment statistics of the University of Alberta as prepared by the Office of the Registrar and Student Awards. DEFINITIONS:

Applications for admission  Applications made by students who have never before attended the University of Alberta.

Applications for re-admission  Applications made by University of Alberta students returning after an absence, or wishing to transfer from one program to another.

Auditing students  Students registered for informational instruction only.

Freshmen  Those new students for whom the last educational institution attended was a high school or equivalent.

Full-time students  Students who are registered for credit in the equivalent of 9 units (normally 3 courses) or more in a Fall/Winter term.

Graduate students  Those who have been admitted to the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. These students are designated as "full-time" or "part-time" by the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research according to their workload of courses and/or research.

Home  For the purpose of the statistics reported in part 7, "home" is derived from the student's current address at the point of initial application for admission.

Off-campus credit students  Those enrolled in courses offered in off-campus centres. Data other than centre of attendance for these students are included in full-time or part-time tables, depending on the students' course-loads. Some students may also be taking on-campus courses in addition to off-campus courses.

Open Studies students  Those who are taking credit courses but are not registered in a specific faculty or degree program.

Part-time students  Students who are registered for credit in the equivalent of fewer than 9 units in a term.

Probationary students  Those who have been admitted (or permitted to continue) on a probationary basis, because their previous academic record is either deficient in some respect, below the standard ordinarily required, or difficult to assess. Normally, if such students fail to meet the conditions stipulated within the time limit imposed, they will not be allowed to proceed further in the program. Probationary students may or may not be assigned a year of program.

Provisional candidate for Doctoral degree
All Ph.D., D.Mus. and Ed.D. students are first admitted as provisional candidates, and reclassified as candidates only when they have met requirements.

Qualifying graduate students
Those whose previous academic records do not allow them full admission into the Faculty. Upon satisfactory completion of a qualifying year in a department, these students may be reclassified as probationary students, candidates for a master’s degree, or as provisional candidates for a doctoral degree.

Special students
Those who have been permitted to register in one or more courses, but not officially for credit towards a degree or diploma at this or any other institution.

Terms
The academic year is divided into four terms for the purposes of registration and the scheduling of classes and examinations.

Spring Term
The academic term extending from early May to mid-June (six weeks).

Summer Term
The academic term extending from early July to mid-August (six weeks).

Fall Term
The academic term extending from September 1 to December 31 (approximately).

Winter Term
The academic term extending from January 1 to April 30 (approximately).

Undergraduate students
Those who are registered in a faculty (see faculty list below) other than the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research.

Visiting/Exchange students Bona fide students of other universities or colleges, who have been permitted to take one or more courses for transfer of credit to their own institutions, which have agreed in advance to such an arrangement.

Year of Program
Years within each academic program are defined by ranges of cumulative units of course weights. The cumulative total of courses successfully completed by a student (including courses from other institutions for which the student has been awarded transfer credit) as of the commencement of the term is compared to these ranges to determine the student’s year in program. For example, in a Bachelor of Arts program, year one is defined as 1 to 29 units of course weight; year two as 30 to 59 units; year three as 60 to 83 units; year four as 84 or more units. A student who has been awarded 12 units of course weight in transfer credit and who has successfully completed 32 units of course weight at the University of Alberta (for a total of 44 units) would be assigned to year two.

Work Experience
Includes co-operative programs, industrial internship programs, practicums, and clinical placements.
