Fri: 8:00am-4:00pm

Lihchin holds a Master of Social Science degree in Counselling and Psychotherapy and is a Canadian Certified Counsellor and Registered Clinical Counsellor. She has worked extensively with youths and their families, adults, and couples over the last 10 years. In addition, Lihchin worked as a crisis counsellor for over 8 years, attending to people who were suicidal and victims of domestic violence. She also served as clinical supervisor to new crisis counsellors. As a trainer, she has conducted many workshops for youths and young adults in topics ranging from self-awareness, relationship management, adjustment, etc.

Lihchin’s emphatic and gentle demeanor helps clients feel safe in sharing about their complex and often overwhelming difficulties. Having worked with clients across the many intersections of identity, including ethnicity and gender, Lihchin adopts a culturally-informed practice and strives to understand each individual in their unique cultural environment. Lihchin believes strongly in empowering clients so that they can resolve difficulties on their terms. By creating a safe space in which clients are guided to focus on their thought-process and emotions, she helps clients better understand themselves so as to make decisions that enable living more authentic and congruent lives.

Lihchin adopts an integrative approach in her clinical practice, combining client-centered, cognitive-behavioural, and emotion-focused philosophies. She has helped many clients live a full life whilst managing mental health challenges, grief and loss, and other social-emotional difficulties. Lihchin is also trained in family mediation, child-inclusive mediation and counselling, and has helped many couples (and their young children) work through divorce whilst prioritizing the best interests of their children.
Lihchin provides counselling services in English and Mandarin.
