

Education Abroad Individual Award—Terms of Reference

Purpose

- Encourage continuing U of A undergraduate and graduate students to undertake an education abroad experience;
- Allow students to choose from a wide variety of education abroad programs, both in type (e.g., exchange/study abroad/faculty-led/internship/research) and in destination;
- Encourage students to take a leadership role in developing their own education abroad opportunities.

Program Eligibility

The Education Abroad Individual Award provides financial support to undergraduate and graduate students undertaking any academic study, research, work term, or a volunteer opportunity outside of Canada for a period of three weeks or longer. Preference will be given to for-credit experiences. Online programs will not be considered.

The proposed education abroad opportunity may be individual or group based, at the undergraduate or graduate level, and may be offered either by the University of Alberta (centrally, Faculty, other) or by an external organization.

Types of eligible education abroad experiences could include:

- Formal exchanges at approved partner institutions;
- Short-term summer courses of study tours;
- Faculty-led programs (course taught by U of A faculty abroad);
- Group programs led by partner institutions or third-party provider;
- Internships, research, clinical rotations, coursework, or volunteer opportunities abroad.

Student Eligibility

Students must:

- be participating in an in-person education abroad programs outside of Canada for a period of at least three weeks;
- participate in a program taking place between July 1, 2023 and April 30, 2024.
- be registered full-time in a University of Alberta degree program, either at the undergraduate or graduate level, at the time of the program abroad. Open Studies and part-time students will not be considered eligible;
- undergraduate students must have completed a minimum of *12 credits of U of A coursework by the application deadline; have a GPA of at least 2.7 in the Fall 2022 and Winter 2023 terms (grades for the Spring/Summer terms are also counted, if applicable) on a minimum of 24 credits. If these terms do not add up to 24 credits, another term will be counted to reach the 24 credits;
- graduate students must have completed at least one term of graduate study by the application deadline; and have a minimum GPA of 2.7 on the courses taken;

Please note: If you received an Individual Award in a previous year, your award cannot be carried forward to this year and you will need to re-apply. If you received an award in a previous round of the Individual award, you are ineligible to apply again.

Ineligible Programs

Other programs receiving funding through the Education Abroad Office, such as GSO, CLIC and QES are not eligible for Education Abroad Individual Award funding.

COVID-19

COVID-19 may affect programs into the 2023-24 academic year. The University of Alberta reserves the right to cancel programs or not approve travel if the situation remains unstable. Award payments will only be made when travel is approved and students should defer major payments associated with their program (housing, flights, etc.) until final approval for travel is given.

Value: $1,000-$4,500

Total value of the award will be based on the duration of the program, for up to 8 months. The total award granted will be calculated using the following per-student formula.

- $1,000 for Month 1
- $500 per month for Months 2 through 8 (if applicable)
- Programs falling on a half month will receive a pro-rated amount (e.g. a one a half month program will receive an additional $250 for a total $1,250; a six and a half month program will receive an additional $250 for a total $3,750).

Examples:	Month 1	Months 2 & 3	Months 4-8	Total Award
Student going abroad for 8 months	$1000	$1000	$2500	$4500
Student going abroad for 4 months	$1000	$1000	$500	$2500
Student going abroad for 6.5 months	$1000	$1000	$1750	$3750
