Co-op Work Permit

Updated August 2023

A co-op work permit allows students who have been admitted to a program which has a mandatory work/field experience component as part of the curriculum (co-op or internship programs and programs with a practicum component) to work full time during their work placement.

To apply, you need a letter from your department stating you are registered/admitted to an Internship/Co-op Program or a program where the work component is an essential part of the program.

The letter must confirm:

1. The internship/co-op placement is an integral part of your program of study (you will not be able to graduate from your program if you do not complete the work placement component)
2. The amount of work is not more than 50% of the total program of study (e.g., an internship can not be longer than 24 months in a four-year program)

For more information about the co-op work permit visit: https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/study-canada/work/intern.html

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- There is no fee for co-op work permit applications. However, if you have not provided IRCC with your biometrics (fingerprints & photo) in the last 10 years, you will be required to pay $85 biometrics fee at the time of application.

- Apply as early as possible to ensure you receive a work permit before you start your co-op placement, internship or practicum. You cannot start your co-op/internship/practicum work component/course prior to receiving your work permit. Certain

- If you are extending an existing work permit, you may continue to work while your application is in process, as long as you submit the new application before your current work permit expires.

- You have the option to apply for both a study permit and a co-op work permit at the same time if your study permit will be expiring in less than 12 months. In this case, you will apply for “Study Permit” extension (see “Study Permit Extension” tip sheet). We highly recommend you include an explanation letter when you do if your SP is valid for 6 months or more at the time you apply.
