

FOLKLORE LUNCH SERIES:

The New Grief Narrative and Mourning Practices in Social Media

Case Study: Russia's War in Ukraine

PRESENTER: MARYNA HRYMYCH

WHEN: FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2022 12 NOON

WHERE: KULE FOLKLORE CENTRE

This presentation is a part of the Anthropology of War and Violence research project. It is based on the examination and analysis of Ukrainian social media dealing with the painful topics of the ongoing Russia-Ukraine War.

Bio: Professor Maryna Hrymych is a Ukrainian academic, writer and diplomat. She has published 20 books, including research monographs, nonfiction (biographies, travelogues) and fiction (novels). As an ethnographer and fieldworker, she conducted her research in Ukraine, Canada, Brazil and the Middle East.