Welcome
to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC) Alberta National Event in Edmonton from March 27 to 30, 2014. We acknowledge that this historic gathering is taking place within traditional Treaty 6 Plains Cree territory.

TRC events provide an important opportunity for those affected by the legacy of the Indian Residential Schools to share their experiences with the Commission and the public. They also serve to educate Canadians about the country’s 130-year history of residential schools, and their legacy for Aboriginal communities and Canadian society as a whole.

This TRC National Event is the seventh and final National Event mandated by the 2007 Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement.

In preparation, the TRC has held public hearings in Red Deer, Slave Lake, High Level, Maskwacis (formerly Hobbema), Lethbridge and Calgary.

Survivors from these and adjacent communities shared their experiences with the Commission in public and private sessions. Most of these hearings were webcast on www.trc.ca, where the Alberta National Event will also be webcast, with large numbers of people tuning in from all over the world. Survivors and their family members shared many personal and emotional truths, as well as hope for change and reconciliation.

In this same spirit of openness, the TRC Alberta National Event in Edmonton will offer a unique opportunity for all Canadians, both Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal, to hear first-hand the experiences of those who attended the schools, to bear witness to the legacy of the residential school system, and to celebrate Aboriginal culture. It is free and open to everyone.

We welcome you to Edmonton as we continue on this national journey for truth, healing and reconciliation.

Respectfully,

Justice Murray Sinclair
Chair

Chief Wilton Littlechild
Commissioner

Dr. Marie Wilson
Commissioner

On behalf of Treaty 6, 7, and 8 First Nations I’d like to personally welcome each of you, whether you are a participant, a visitor, or a volunteer at the final Truth and Reconciliation National Event. I would also like to thank the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC), on their efforts to right the wrongs of the past. We commend the Commission for their effort to document the stories, which will be preserved in history so that the stories are told and retold in Canada’s school curriculum.

We are gathered here for a few days to learn the truth about what happened in the residential schools and to document the experiences so that all Canadians are correctly informed about what happened in the schools. It will be a painful time, but we must continue the work and adapt, remaining motivated, responsive and being open to new ideas.

Our TRC is confronting a time of many changes and they are working on meeting these changes during a time of larger nation-wide and global change. You will have a chance to hear the truth as painful as it may be, but you will also have an opportunity to meet resilient First Nation individuals who are seeking reconciliation; to find forgiveness and healing for themselves, their families and their communities.

In closing, I’d like to thank each of you for attending the Alberta National Event and bringing your experience to our gathering. You, as family, clan and community leaders, have the vision, the knowledge, the wherewithal and the experience to help us pave our way into the future. You are truly our greatest asset today and tomorrow, and we could not accomplish what we do without your participation. Throughout this event, I ask you to stay engaged, keep us proactive and help us shape the future of Healing. My personal respect and thanks goes out to all of you.

Chief Cameron Alexis
Regional Chief of Alberta
Assembly of First Nations
Carved by Coast Salish artist Luke Marston, the TRC Bentwood Box is a lasting tribute to all Indian Residential School Survivors. Steamed and bent from a single piece of red cedar, the carved panels represent the unique cultures of former First Nations, Inuit and Métis students. The artist pays respect to his own grandmother by depicting her residential schools experiences at Kuper Island in the carvings.

The Bentwood Box reflects the strength and resilience of Residential School Survivors and their descendants, and honours those Survivors who are no longer living. The Box will travel with the TRC to all of its seven National Events throughout Canada.

As the Box travels with the Commission to different provinces and territories, offerings will be made to it to commemorate personal journeys toward healing and reconciliation.

At the end of the TRC’s mandate, it will be housed in the National Research Centre at the University of Manitoba.

Throughout the TRC National Event, the Bentwood Box will be on site for the Commissioners Sharing Panels, Honorary Witness Ceremonies and during the Expressions of Reconciliation.

CELEBRATION OF FIRST NATIONS HOCKEY
Hockey was a life-saver for many who attended Indian Residential Schools. There are many great hockey players who got their start at these schools.

The Edmonton Oilers will honour First Nations hockey players in a special celebration, Sunday, March 30 when they take on the New York Rangers.

SACRED FIRE

The lighting of the Sacred Fire in June 2010 at the start of the TRC’s first National Event, in Winnipeg, MB, was an emotional beginning to a landmark event, and a symbol of strength and warmth for everyone who participated.

Ashes from the Winnipeg Sacred Fire were transported by members of the Indian Residential School Survivor Committee to Inuvik, NT, where they were added to the Sacred Fire that burned during the TRC Northern National Event in June/July 2011. From there, ashes were taken to the Atlantic National Event in Halifax (October 2011), to the Saskatchewan National Event in Saskatoon (June 2012), to the Quebec National Event in Montreal (April 2013) and the British Columbia National Event in Vancouver (September 2013).

At the close of the BC National Event, ashes from the Sacred Fire were entrusted to Chief Wilton Littlechild, Alberta Representative on the TRC Survivor Committee. They will be added to the Sacred Fire that will burn in Edmonton for the duration of the TRC Alberta National Event.

DATE: Thursday, March 27, 2014
BEGINS: 6am
LOCATION: Sacred Fire Site, Shaw Centre Assembly Level Patio

The Lighting of the Sacred Fire happens before we begin each National Event to ensure that the Spirits and the Teachings guide and protect us while the Commission does its work.

PLEASE HELP US RESPECT THE PROTOCOLS OF THE SACRED FIRE

- The Firekeeper has been entrusted with tending to this flame and deserves the utmost respect.
- Traditionally, it is the responsibility of the men to ensure the Fire burns all day and all night.
- A Sacred Fire is separate from a cooking or camp fire; please do not throw garbage or cigarette butts into the Sacred Fire.
- Please refrain from using drugs or alcohol near the Sacred Fire and for the duration of the TRC Alberta National Event.

IF YOU WISH TO MAKE AN OFFERING TO THE SACRED FIRE

- If you wish to share a prayer or offering, please ask the Firekeeper about the protocols.
COMMISSIONERS SHARING PANEL
Commissioners Sharing Panels provide an opportunity for Survivors, Intergenerational Survivors, former teachers, those who worked in the schools, or anyone else who wants to speak publicly about the affect of the schools on their lives to share their truth directly with the Commissioners of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada.
* Registration: begins March 26 in the Assembly Level Foyer
* Members of the public and the media may witness.
DATES: March 27-30
BEGINS: See Program at a Glance
LOCATION: Hall A

SHARING CIRCLES
Facilitated by members of the TRC Indian Residential School Survivors Committee (IRSSC). Sharing Circles enable Survivors, their family members, former staff and anyone else affected by the residential schools to share their truth with others in a public setting.
* Registration: begins March 26 in the Assembly Level Foyer
* Members of the public and the media may witness.
* Separate sharing circles will also be held in the Churches Listening Area.
DATE: March 28-30
BEGINS: See Program at a Glance
LOCATIONS: Salon 4 and Salon 11

PRIVATE STATEMENT GATHERING
Those wishing to share their experiences with the TRC in a private and confidential setting can do so. The Private Statement Gathering Area, located in Hall C, has individual rooms where private statements may be video or audio recorded. Health Supports will be available.
* Registration: begins March 26 in the Assembly Level Foyer
DATE: March 27-30
BEGINS: See Program at a Glance
LOCATION: Hall C

HOW TO SHARE YOUR TRUTH INFORMATION SESSION
Your statement is very important and can help Canadians understand the legacy of Residential Schools. Those who lived, attended and worked at the schools are given a voice through the statement gathering process.
This workshop will provide information on how you can share your experience. The three statement-gathering options will be discussed: private statement-gathering; sharing circles; and Commissioners’ sharing panels. The role of Health Supports will also be discussed.
DATE: March 27
BEGINS: 11am and 1pm
LOCATION: Salon 4
Education Day

The TRC is pleased to welcome students from across Alberta to Education Day. Two thousand students will participate in educational activities dealing with the residential schools.

On Thursday, March 27, all displays and activities will be reserved for school groups until 2:30pm. Students will be given priority access for Education Day activities.

DATE: March 27, 9:30am to 2:30pm

FEATHERS OF HOPE: YOUTH VOICE IN FIRST NATIONS ISSUES
Three “Youth Amplifiers” from Ontario’s Office of the Child and Youth Advocate walk workshop participants through their work and speak to the importance of youth voice in policy and program at the community, provincial, federal and First Nations level. A highly interactive workshop.

DATE: March 29
BEGINS: 10am
LOCATION: Salon 9

‘(OFFICIAL DENIAL) TRADE VALUE IN PROGRESS’
This is an interactive project by artist Leah Decter and curator Jaimie Isaac. Since 2010 the project has invited Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people to consider reconciliation, decolonization and our colonial past and present by responding to Stephen Harper’s 2009 statement ‘We also have no history of colonialism’. Those present are invited to view the piece and participate by sewing and writing their responses.

DATE: March 29
BEGINS: 1pm
LOCATION: Salon 9

CALL TO GATHER

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT SERVICES

The shape of the TRC logo — a circle — reflects the Circle of Life. In the Circle, we join together to share truth.

The flames sustain life in the Circle and provide safety and sustenance. Most importantly, the flames shed light on what needs to be shared in the Circle — the experiences of those affected by Indian Residential Schools.

The seven flames that make up the circle represent the seven sacred teachings: love, respect, courage, honesty, wisdom, humility and truth. The Truth and Reconciliation Commission draws on each of those teachings in the work of truth-gathering, truth-telling, reconciliation, and each TRC National Event is dedicated to one of them. The Alberta National Event is dedicated to the sacred teaching of wisdom.
