

- (d) any other officers of the university that may be designated by the council.

(2) The deans' council is an advisory body to the president of the university, the board and the general faculties council and has the powers, duties and functions that are delegated to it.

Faculty and School Councils

Faculty councils

28(1) Each faculty of a university must have a faculty council.

(2) A faculty council, other than that of a faculty of graduate studies, shall consist of

- (a) the dean of the faculty, who is the chair,
- (b) the president,
- (c) all full-time members of the academic staff of the faculty,
- (d) any representative of a professional association appointed pursuant to subsection (4), and
- (e) any other persons who are appointed to the faculty council by the general faculties council on the recommendation of the faculty council.

(3) The faculty council of a faculty of graduate studies shall consist of

- (a) the dean of the faculty, who is the chair,
- (b) the president, and
- (c) any other persons who are appointed to the faculty council by the general faculties council.

(4) When by statute a body has regulatory powers in respect of a profession for which a faculty offers a program of study, the general faculties council shall appoint to the faculty council of that faculty a representative of that body nominated by that body.

Powers of faculty councils

29(1) A faculty council may

- (a) determine the programs of study for which the faculty is established,
- (b) appoint the examiners for examinations in the faculty, conduct the examinations and determine the results of them,
- (c) provide for the admission of students to the faculty,
- (d) determine the conditions under which a student must withdraw from or may continue the student's program of studies in the faculty, and
- (e) authorize the granting of degrees,

subject to any conditions or restrictions that are imposed by the general faculties council.

(2) A meeting of a faculty council must be held at any time on the summons of the dean of the faculty.

(3) A faculty council may delegate any of its powers, duties and functions under this Act as it sees fit and may prescribe conditions governing the exercise or performance of any delegated power, duty or function, including the power of subdelegation.

School councils

30 When the general faculties council authorizes a school of the university to have a school council,

- (a) the director of the school may exercise and perform all the powers, duties and functions of a dean of a faculty, and
- (b) the school council shall be of the same nature as and may exercise the powers and perform the duties and functions of a faculty council,

subject to any conditions or restrictions that are imposed by the general faculties council.

Student Affairs

Student discipline

31(1) The general faculties council has general supervision of student affairs at a university and in particular, but without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the general faculties council may
